

REESE'S 1900

Established in 1971 by well-known Patchogue publican David Reese and operated for years by Ken and Ginny Russell, the baton was passed in 2006 to two longtime Reese's employees, Matthew Lowe and Patrick Palmeri.

Together they have continued the tradition of providing delicious meals, a comfortable bar, an aura of well-being and a sense of belonging found in few public houses.

Whether it's a corned beef sandwich accompanied by a handsomely drawn pint of Guinness at lunchtime or a marinated NY sirloin and a glass of Cabernet on a cozy midweek evening - Reese's 1900 has been a favorite gathering place for people across Suffolk County for close to half-a-century. Patrick and Matthew, the friendly staff of Reese's 1900 Pub welcome you!

As the sign behind the bar says...

*"May the wind be always at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
The rains fall soft upon your fields
And until we meet again, may God
Hold you in the palm of his hand."*
